

JOBLESS ARMY HERE CUT 40 P.C. IN YEAR

Decrease in Unemployment Is Accompanied by Increase in Trade.

BUSINESS IS OPTIMISTIC

Adjustment of Labor Troubles
Locked Upon as One of Best Signs.

A survey of business conditions made by the Merchants Association shows a 40 per cent. decrease in unemployment in New York city during the last year and a feeling of optimism as to the immediate business outlook from prominent men in various fields of business activity.

Several thousand letters were sent out containing opinions on the trade outlook, and of the replies received to date, all were unanimous in declaring that business is distinctly better and that the indications are unmistakably for a continued advance. The dissenting letter was from an importer who did not believe the purchasing power of Europe was sufficiently restored to bring back normal conditions in his line of business.

Opinions of Business Men.

Some of the excerpts from the replies received are given below:

Struthers Furnace Company manufacturers of steel products have improved materially in the last thirty days. From present indications we would say the business outlook for the future is most hopeful.

R. Tyson White's Sons, manufacturers of paper boxes—Indications for future business prospects are most brighter than for any time in recent years. With running overtime and taking on as many employees as we can obtain. As a comparison with 1919, in the last two months we have booked orders for an amount equal to 25 per cent. of our entire sales in 1919, which was an exceptional year.

W. Schmitt, Fay, president of G. Schmitt Inc., music and musical supplies—Our observations indicate splendid business ahead for us, nearly approaching the years 1919-1920, the best we have had. Sales for the last few months have been remarkably good.

Sees Gain in Buying Power.

G. A. Clarke, eastern manager of the United Cleaning and Optical Products Inc.—I am optimistic of a decided return to normal conditions in the immediate future. As most of the serious labor troubles have been adjusted, resulting in many cases in an increase in wages, this should enable the buying power of the public to start reaching a nearly normal basis.

The latest figures in unemployment was in the transportation and building trades groups. The committee in charge of the survey found that there was virtually no unemployment in New York city among railroad workers or truckmen. Most of the sailors and a large number of the longshoremen previously unemployed have drifted into other work and some are engaged in the building trades.

The monthly review of business conditions of the Federal Reserve Bank of the United States and Oregon Pacific notes company—I am optimistic of a decided return to normal conditions in the immediate future. As most of the serious labor troubles have been adjusted, resulting in many cases in an increase in wages, this should enable the buying power of the public to start reaching a nearly normal basis.

Open Lane Through Crowd at Gaiety Theater Meeting.

When the Salvation Army invaded the restricted theater district again last night to conduct an outdoor service on the steps of the Gaiety Theater the police attitude was in marked contrast to that of two weeks ago, when Capt. Rapha Crawford was arrested after she had made a speech at the same place.

The Gaiety is on Forty-seventh street, west of Broadway, and soon after the meeting was opened by Capt. Jones at 9:30 o'clock a large crowd gathered, grew until the sidewalk and the street were packed. Quite evidently the police did not know what to do about it. Patrolman Maher, on post there, telephoned to the West Forty-seventh street station house to advise the officer in charge just what the situation was with persons and vehicles unable to make their way through the block. Instead of ordering that the meeting be broken up the officer in charge telephoned to Headquarters and asked the advice of Inspector Cray.

Inspector Cray hurried up to the place and directed six policemen in opening a passage for vehicles. Then he was careful not to let them through before conducting the meeting. When the lane had been opened the Inspector politely requested the army officers to refrain from band music. They were permitted to preach and sing.

Capt. Crawford was not there. It was said that she is ill at the Salvation Army Retreat.

Greeks Demand Death of "Tino's" Statesmen

ATHENS, Oct. 29 (Associated Press)—After listening today to a public oration by a prominent Venetian, who acclaimed the achievements of the revolution and condemned the former regime, a great audience demanded the death of the statesmen now under arrest. Later they began rioting, and destroyed all the portraits of Constantine.

DR. SLATTERY SAYS GOOD-BY BY PROXY

Cold and Loss of Voice Prevent Grace Church Pastor's Farewell Sermon.

Because of a cold, resulting in the temporary loss of his voice, the Rev. Dr. Charles Slattery, pastor of the church whose far-famed sermon in Grace Church yesterday preparatory to taking up his residence in Boston as the Bishop Coadjutor of Massachusetts.

At the rectory it was said his indisposition would not interfere with his consecration as a bishop. The ceremonies will be held Saturday morning in Trinity Church, Copley Square, Boston.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Cotton Smith of Washington, D. C., preached in Dr. Slattery's place. He brought to the congregation, which filled the church to the doors, a message of farewell from the departing rector.

"Were it not for my deep friendship for Dr. Slattery," said Dr. Smith, "I should be loath to step into this pulpit. You have all heard him speak. I am sorry to hear from your rector's lips a message of farewell and you are bearing in your hearts to him a message of your own. The parting of a pastor and his flock is an intimate occasion, a very affair, into which an outsider, as I am, must hesitate to come."

"If Dr. Slattery were here he would tell you of his appreciation for the way you have helped him, of his gratitude for all your loyal and unswerving devotion."

Dr. Smith praised Dr. Slattery for his twelve years' rectorship in Grace Church, describing him as a true pastor, a real shepherd of his flock.

The vestry of Grace Church will march in the procession to-morrow and the senior warden will read one of the testimonials. The consecration ceremonies will be conducted by Dr. William Lawrence, Bishop of Massachusetts, assisted by Bishop Samuel Babcock, Bishop Suffragan of that diocese, and Bishop Bevely Dandridge Tucker of the diocese of southern Virginia, acting as co-consecrators. According to the arrangement made with the Most Rev. Dr. Sylvester Tracy of St. Louis, the Primate of the Episcopal Church in America, Bishop Edwin S. Lines of Newark and Bishop W. T. Manning of New York will act as presenters.
